MEDIA ADVISORY

Unclaimed Property Outreach Tour Coming to Iowa and LaFayette Counties

More than 4,500 people in the two county area have unclaimed property totaling more than $382,000

Thursday, April 16, State Treasurer Dawn Marie Sass will be at the public libraries in Dodgeville and Darlington with the Unclaimed Property database to help people search for lost and forgotten property. Plus, on Thursday, April 16th, the latest unclaimed property list for LaFayette County will be printed in the Republican Journal.

Statewide, over one million people and businesses have unclaimed property in Wisconsin totaling more than $352 million. In the two county area, the numbers are as follows:

- Iowa County has more than 2,700 people with unclaimed property worth more than $239,000.
- LaFayette County has more than 1,800 people with unclaimed property worth more than $143,000.

Since the outreach tour began, over two years ago, record amounts of unclaimed property have been returned to the rightful owners. To find out if you have unclaimed property please visit us at the one of the below listed locations, or click on www.statetreasurv.wisconsin.gov to search the database.
